I have a list of items with their details such as item name, quantity, purchase price, sales price/sale price, etc. What is more correct to write in the heading, sales price or sale price?

Somehow it really grates me when people say that something is at a "cheaper/more expensive price" or "cheaper/more expensive rate". My understanding is that prices and rates can be lower or higher, ...

(in Phrasefinder Bulletin Board): "Cheap at half the price" is understood to mean "reasonably priced" and if people understand that meaning why worry about logical niceties? It was never intended to be ...

Introducing the IP65 Mount Battery Rack Cabinet, designed for robust outdoor applications. This weatherproof solar battery cabinet is perfect for storing inverter batteries, ...

It usually adopts rack-mounted design and can be used as an independent DC power supply or as a "basic unit" to form a variety of specifications of energy ...

Price point means a point on a scale of possible prices at which something might be marketed; its meaning is different from the meaning of price, which is (principally, but not only) the ...

This is one of those instances. Whereas a high price doesn't really convey any judgment on whether you think the price is excessive, a tall price gives the impression that you think the price ...
